Ties and knots are what we caught when we escaped.
Were we lost or rightly brought back from where we came?

Back to rooms, that we'd exhumed, and carved our names.

Ohh

Oh, read out every line.
Swallow what you find.
So we can see it on your skin, oh.

Standing in a hollowed dent of written walls.
So much cost of what we've lost, of all we saw.
Can't escape if there's no gates, to keep us in, oh.
Ohh

Oh, read out every line.
Swallow what you find.
So we can see it on your skin, oh.

Oh, sing what once was sung.
And lift your dying tongue.
Teeth on the cold corroding sand.
On the cold corroding

Ohh Ohh
Ohh Ohh
Ohh Ohhh

Ohh Ohh
Ohh Ohh
Ohh Ohhh

Oh, read out every line.
And swallow what you find .
So we can see it on your skin, oh.

Oh, sing what once was sung
And lift your dying tongue
Teeth on the cold corroding sand
On the cold corroding.

Ohh Ohh
Ohh Ohh
