I've been wanting to show you
I wanna get to know you just a little bit better
I've been dying to know if you feel tthe same way as I do

And when I think about you
You drive me crazy
I can't forget you
That pretty smile
Lights up my day
I can't escape
Those beautiful blue eyes

I've been taking my time
Waiting for a sign
Trying to think of the right line
To make you wanna be mine
But it seems quite unlikely that you'll ever find me
More than just that guy
But I wanna be the boy that makes you smile
Skies are blue when it's just me and you

And I've been staring at my phone
Waiting for your reply
I've been telling all my friends
How you left an x when you said goodbye
And I almost died at the thought of you and I

I've been taking my time
Waiting for a sign
Trying to think of the right line
To make you wanna be mine
But it seems quite unlikely that you'll ever find me
More than just that guy
But I wanna be the boy that makes you smile
Skies are blue when it's just me and you

The suns out
And so are we
And it means so much
That you're here with me
And lying on the grass

The clouds seem so far away
And your laugh has made my day

I've been taking my time
Waiting for a sign
Trying to think of the right line
To make you wanna be mine
But it seems quite unlikely that you'll ever find me
More than just that guy
But I wanna be the boy that makes you smile
Skies are blue, and I'm with you.
And baby you're smiling
And I can't hide it
You're all I want cause you're all I need
When summer comes say you'll be around
And that's the plan, but until then

I'll be taking my time
Waiting for a sign
To make you wanna be mine
But it seems quite unlikely that you'll ever find me

I wanna be the boy that makes you smile
