Your windows
Are blacked out
From bad things
Like real love
You feel like
A hole in space
But...

I love it when you fall apart
You turn it into higher art
We see it in your eyes but your lips never part
You're a star

Your legs are
So skinny
You're so rich
With meaning
I know
We're all the same
Right?

We love it when you fall apart

You turn it into higher art
We see it in your eyes but your lips never part
You're a star

I know you can't say
It's been such a long day
I know it won't change
And I'm just on the way

Yeah, we love to watch you fall apart
You turn it into higher art for us
We see it in your eyes but your lips never part
You're a star
