Proud and feasting
Clean and sore-free smiles
Atoned and righteous
Safe from words of hate
Swift and painless
Assemble the unreachable
Betrayed and plotted
The mob will be entertained

Then, without a sound
A change. brief, but still
Lights went out

Only to unveil the falling sky.

To sink, to follow
In paths where pride won't reach
Untamed and childlike
The new, of ways not spoken
Survive the envy
Tail their every move
Then sunk and ashamed
Trigger the gift of birth
