Grasping at dead straws again
I'm clawing at dry sand
Can't remember where I've been
Or who died on command

Our minds are what they're after
So I drown in your laughter
Our souls in sweet reunion
We die to keep it moving

Don't cry
Beautiful destroyer of mine
Terrible disaster so fine
I put all I've got on the line
Just so you might show me one sign

And so it goes
I watch them drop like flies
'Til I find another face
To use for my disguise

I walk among the millions
I smile like a civilian
My mind is on a mission
I'll talk on one condition...

Don't cry
Beautiful destroyer of mine
Terrible disaster so fine
I put all I've got on the line
Just so you might show me one sign

Beautiful destroyer of mine
Fabulous disaster so fine
I put all I've got on the line
Just so you might show me one...
