Dance in the parade of fire
Fear and suspicion turns you on
You can't take me home I've gone too far

As the hands of the night lifts me up
It's time to move on
I'm anxious to find all my answers

Sometimes I really wonder if we exist just to live and Die
There has to be some questions and answers to find
Isn't it funny most people pray when they are lonely,
Depressed, lost
Means we're religious when we are desperate, am I
Wrong?

This is not who I am

Walking through shadows bleeding snow
I saw my name carved on the stone
A solid ground a hidden rose

I lay beside a curtain wall
Certain things I'll never know
Haunting me as I fall

Now the clowns laughing me
And they all know the story
There's a life to be found
When we're free as god

Pray for the night
See the stars living in your hands

Rain will start to fall
When we're free as god

As I dream of me
Someone other than me
Fading into reality

Crawling to myself, this place I've never been

Restless in this bed, don't know what to believe
A hybrid child will born deep inside of me
Be free as the god change the world with me

As I dream of me
Someone other than me
Fading into reality

Now the clowns laughing you
And we all know the story
Love will be true
When you're free as god
This time I believe
I can reach for something we deceived
Life will be ours
When we're free as god

Read between the lines
Take the chance for eternity
Time will be ours
When we're free as god

Let the sun rise from west
Let your fears lay down to rest
Than we realize
That we're free as the god
