

Comma "Never Betray"

Visions breakthrough
As I am drowned inside of you
Ways to escape
Been minimized and guarded by you

Scanning my mind
To free myself, to analyze
Stream of fate
Come over us, comes over us

Though I fade away
My soul will stay in this hell
I can't break away
Unreal, unmasked ecstasy of descent

Blind my thoughts
Left me in this hell

Banned and ruined
Recalling every sign of fall
So deceiving
I never try to hear their call
The air I'm breathing
Will slowly fade until I'm gone
My habits breaking
Can I Face the scream of life

I'll never betray myself again, no
