I'm waking up alone, in a silent room.
Everywhere in full of depression.
Heading to the small window upon the wall
Rise of infinity in front of me and things i see is blinding me

Don't tell me that there's no salvation for me
Let me fight against this darkness
The devil you've sent will be defeated by me
I will pierce the infinity by reaching the light

Strongly i am rising from the ground
Trying to see your face when i look into the sky

Admit the fear inside of you
I hear the last heartbeat before you die
With the power of the light, i will defeat.
While your souls disappear, i will laugh.

Far away awaits the army of the devil
After the dawn, i will march to slay them all.

Don't tell me that there's no salvation for me
Let me fight against this darkness
The devil you've sent will be defeated by me
I will pierce the infinity by reaching the light

Admit the fear inside of you
I hear the last heartbeat before you die
With the power of the light, i will defeat.
While your souls disappear, i will laugh.
