Wasn't so long ago, I needed help
Didn't know where to turn, thought that I was by myself
Then a friend came to me and told me God could set me free
Since that day I knew that God love me

Everyday I call him
Not just Sunday morning'
And he is always there
And it Feels Good

Feels Good to call your name
And know that you'll be there
Feels good to hear you say
You watch me everywhere
And when I am down I know that I can always come to you in prayer
Just to know I can always count on you
Sure Feels Good

I remember driving home late one night
My head fell, I grew tired I just had to close my eyes
I didn't know how I stayed on the road but somehow I made it through
The only thing that I could do is lift my hands to you.

Feels Good to call your name
And know that you'll be there
Feels good to hear you say
You watch me everywhere
And when I am down I know that I can always come to you in prayer
Just to know I can always count on you
Sure Feels Good

For God loved the world that he gave his only son
So that you and I could see, how our life was meant to be,
And it Feels Good
