I'm runing away...

na, na, nah,

I'm running away from the people I call friends thought my girl was to blame I blame myself in the end

we all got issues
'bout revealing the truth Y'all know that game
'yall play it too

I know what is real revealing the lies
it's time we recognize

Learning to love
what's inside you
is the real key

I'm not ashamed
or scared
what will they think
if they knew

You think they're ready?

(Are you ready for me?)

I'm not gonna run away for ever trust you'll like it better take a little time for me

Takes some time
to rediscover
things I see in others
if you wonder where I'll be

I'll be...
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
I'll Be..
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
me...

Comes from within
If ya don't succeed
then ya start again

If you don't try
then how will you know That's just one more reason why I've gotta go

Don't know when I've ever felt this free about me..

But I knew things had to change
The revelation is clear It's time for a cleansing

(I'm not gonna run away for ever)
I'm not gonna run away
(trust you'll like it better)
Looking for better days (gotta take a little time for me) while I take a little time for me

(Takes some time)
(to rediscover)
yeah

(things I see in others)
(if you wonder where I'll be)
ohhh

Oh, I'll be...
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
I'll be...
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,
working on,

da, da, da
da, da, da
da, da, da
da, da, da
da, da, da
da, da, da
da, da, da
da, da, da
da, da, da
da, da, da

(working on me..)
da, da, da
da, da, da
da, da, da
etc.

Don't worry bout me
just let me be when you're living a dream come true

I'm not gonna follow
it's time to leave
gonna take some time
and work on me
