

21st Generation "Broken Hands"

Visit "Broken Hands" on MotoLyrics.com

Broken hands are crying hands
Are holding hands are failing hands
Did you ever see my letters in the dark?
Confused whats left to see
When your eyes already suffered for so long

'Cause I won't forgive
Not this time, not again
Who were you waiting for
All those times, all those times
Who were you waiting for?

You conscience and
My appearance
Are like lovers, lovers in need
Can't you see I searched those seas
Just to make them bleed
Please, once again
