

21st Generation "Down & Out"

Meet me upstairs it's time to go now
Hang down, Hang down baby
Where's your ability to make me
Wonder to make me lose my head
Make me forget the tears of value

I wanna feel tomorrow
Just like the ghost and devil in fight
I will remember this arrow
You shoot me right down & out
No need for excuses, Pain I never felt before
And if you ever try to find me
Don't search here no more

I'm too long gone, Have you ever shed a tear?
Run away my princess, run away and scream my name
