

Conchadors "Painted Faces"

Visit "Painted Faces" on MotoLyrics.com

I see painted faces with my eyes
I feel the darkness in the smiles
People lying all days
For their emptiness
They can't break my courage
With the lies

I know the truth is waiting for us
In the name of thrust
Why couldn't we be helpful to our friends
Cause we are unfaithful

I see painted faces with my eyes
I feel the darkness in the smiles
People lying all days
For their emptiness
They can't break my courage
With the lies

I know the truth is waiting for us
In the name of thrust
Why couldn't we be helpful to our friends
Cause we are unfaithful
