Yes I'm lonely but do I give more than I take
Got no promise so there's nothing I can break.

It's a struggle, I've been fighting all my life.
Im addicted to the feeling that in my change
Will it be too late?

Yes im standing right in front of you,
Nothing more to offer than my hopes and dreams
Yes im standing right in front of you,
Nothing more to give you than this.

Getting closer, im a richer man inside.
It's amazing, all the things I've had to give up for this life.
Change your heart, change your mind.

Yes im standing right in front of you,
Nothing more to offer than my honesty.
Yes im standing right in front of you,
Nothing more to give you than this.

Ooh, this laugh of mine
It comes crashing and tumbling down
But I built my world, around you girl,
Around our love, around us. Yeeeah yeeeah.

Now im standing right in front of you,
Nothing left between us but history.
Yes im standing right in front of you,
Nothing more to give you than this.

Here I'm standing right in front of you,
Everything remembered as a mystery.
Yes I'm standing right in front of you,
Nothing more to give you than this.
I've got nothing more to give you than this.
