verse 1

when ur head is as big as ur pillow when ur cash is a check card in place when u put on panty hose instead of shaving ur legs when u use grease that uve used over and over again when u only go to church on easter and holidays then u ghetto believe that course

can u be a rich bitch and be ghetto(yes) just cuz ur poor does that mean that u ghetto(no) some people just dont understand what it means to b ghetto
and if u gotta ask then y u never no

verse 2

being ghetto is just a thing u do sometimes like hanging ur clothes over the oven to dry and ur late u gotta go and u aint ready yet put em on anyway and rock em half way wet u wear and return everything u buy always lookin for a discount till the day u die got three kids by three different guys put salt on ur food before u even taste it get a doggy bag ghetto nig aint wasting s*i*

no toilet paper somebody used that last u had no problem just get a daily user or paper bag crumple it up and make it soft for ur @$$ and when u flush the toilet always gets clogged up u no u ghetto ur soap is the size of a chicklet runnin to the kitchen wet for dishwasher liquid u waters cold cold cuz they shut off ur power u no u ghetto if u pee in the shower

course
