Don't know where you're going but you think you know the way
20-20 vision but you can't see the light of day Road is wide or narrow but you can't tell which is which Blind will follow blind and you'll both end up in the ditch

Can't you see, you can't see?
Don't you know, you don't know?

Blinded eyes can't see the light
When it's glowing in the night right in front of you
Blinded eyes can't see the truth
When it's written on the wall in plain view, blinded eyes

Blinded eyes can't see the Son or the work that He has done
Out of love for you

Groping in the darkness searching for the missing switch
Come up empty-handed try to scratch the endless itch
There is only one light that can penetrate your mind
Just one look at Jesus your eyes could leave their scales behind

Can't you see, you could see?
Don't you know, you could know?

Blinded eyes can't see the light
When it's glowing in the night right in front of you
Blinded eyes can't see the truth
When it's written on the wall in plain view

Blinded eyes can't see the Son or the work that He has
done
Out of love for you, blinded eyes

Can't you see, you can't see?
Don't you know, you don't know?

Blinded eyes can't see the light
When it's glowing in the night right in front of you

Blinded eyes can't see the truth
When it's written on the wall in plain view

Blinded eyes can't see the Son or the work that He has
done
Out of love for you, blinded eyes
