Words & Music by Bob Hartman

Lord, how lovely is Your name

You are everyday the same

You are worthy

Lord, come and fill our emptiness

With the beauty of Your holiness

Now, we will sing Your praise

And declare Your ways to be holy

Chorus:

Lord, we love and proclaim

The Holiest name

Of God in the highest

Lord, above every name

No other can claim

The Holiest name of all

Grace has been given unto us

We have nothing else to trust

But Your mercy

Your love has called us to Your side

We will faithfully abide in You

And now we will heed Your voice

And our hearts rejoice in Your glory

CHORUS

The Holiest name

The Holiest name of all
