Exodus 3:14; John 8:58

Words & Music by Bob Hartman

From the top of mountains to the bottom of the sea

From beginning of time through eternity

From the burning bush to Gethsemane

From the Red Sea shores to the Galilee

You are I am You are I am

Let the Heavens rejoice in your Majesty

Let the earth hear your voice in its purity

From the fiery furnace to the Upper Room

From the Lions' den to the empty tomb

You have always been-You will always be

Yesterday, today and through eternity

I will always bow my knee

You will never cease to be I am

From the breath of life to the Living Word

To the broken heart when good news is heard
