One question, what can't be done?
You tear me down with the same thing.
There's nothing there and it's begun.
Why can you do when it all drains
Down there you go always see if I care it faded.
Down don't you know where I'll be.
'cause I'm here on my own waiting.
When I'm waiting, don't you know
I've been here before and I don't care where I'm going.
So I'll stay.

When you walk don't leave a note,
Just put your hand on the backdoor.
When you talk it's just a joke,
Just know I can't take it anymore.

Down there you go always see if I care it faded,
Down don't you know where I'll be?
'Cause I'm here on my own waiting.
When I'm waiting don't you know
I've been here before and I don't care where I'm going.
So I'll be waiting.
When I'm waiting don't you know.
I'll tell you once more that as long as your gone
Then I'll stay
Outside there's no place I can hide
Then your good time is anything but aright
When wind slides there's storms outside
You'll be outside
While I'm in here and I'll guard.

Waiting, when I'm waiting
Don't you know
I've been here before and I don't care where I'm going
So I'll be waiting when I'm waiting
Don't you know
I'll tell you once more
That as long as your gone
Then I'll stay
Then I'll stay
Then I'll stay

And I'll go
Then I'll stay
