What am I to do in my darkest hour?
Lamplight to light my despair
She has the stars in her eyes
The mind in her hair, my sanctuary silent and silver

Shine bright, Lady Moonlight

Should I cry, should I weep?
My secrets she'll keep them in her temple
'Neath her veil she is Isis, she is Guinevere
Sister to the sea

Queen of the night with the answer
And my heart disbelieves
The myth surrounding Eve
She couldn't know what she was doing

Shine bright, Lady Moonlight
