Silky sea on sinking sand
Make your heart this fating minute
Leave your head with nothing in it

Set sail my love
Let sail my love

Lullaby before the storm
Raising masts may drag me down
At your mercy let me drown

Set sail my love
Let sail my love

Treasure says that we were pure
Shells that whisper in my pocket
There's a secret door unlocking

Let sail my love
Set sail my love

Treasure says that we look pale
Shells that whisper in the darkness
There's a secret dawn (I'm learning? )

Set sail my love
Let sail my love
Set sail my love
Let sail my love
