"Lake And Ocean"

You don't fight
You don't sigh
You don't listen back
Even on the trail of love
You're all done
We're not finished yet
Seeing heights my heart bequeaths
You don't see
You don't need
You don't matter now
Even on the trail of love
You don't fall
You don't recognize
All the things I did for you
Cause I am over - the things you did to me

It's uneasy but it's true -
Didn't I say?
Didn't I treat you right you're breaking me down?
Didn't you treat me right I'm breaking you down?
All and all you're just a lake inside my ocean
All and all you're just for me
All and all you're just a lake inside my ocean
Anyway I see.
