"By Myself"

Visit "By Myself" on MotoLyrics.com

Cornered at a costume ball
By a handful of disguises
So I tried them all on
And they were all the right sizes
I wore them obviously
Though they would choke the life from me

(chorus)
I got here by myself but
I know that I will never leave the same way
I got here by myself but
How many more will I have led astray

I work the floor in search of someone
Who would give me half a chance
I know if I look hard enough
I'll always find someone who'll dance

(chorus)

It's not long before I notice
There are no doors to be seen
I can see I'm going nowhere
Somewhere that I've already been

(chorus 2x)
