"Home Again"

Hangin' on a string
Walking a tightrope
I've been relying on myself for far too long
Livin' on my own
And thinking I'd cope
Why'd I put You on the shelf
Oh i was wrong

Livin' on good intentions
Never got me very far
Only with Your direction
Can I get to where You are

(chorus)
Home again
I've been gone way to long
Home again
I don't want to roam no more
I'm where I belong

I must have thought
Dreaming again out of habit
Something bout tryin to get myself ahead
Led to want it all
Then remembering I had it
I've been down that road
And won't go back again

(chorus)
