"Line Of Love"

Okay, You're right
I cannot fight this all alone
Let in the light i need to know

Your line of love goes on and on
Drawn in a circle, drawn upon
My heart and i can't erase it

This line of love connecting me
To You, forever knowing
When i fall You'll help me to face it

Facing myself
Hasn't been easy
Can't hide any longer
Those days are through

Your line of love goes on and on
Leads to a place where i belong
Where mercy waits to embrace me

This line of love that draws me in Forgiving forgetting my sin
And in Your grace it has traced me
