"Let Go"

If there is only one God, why do we serve so many?
If there is only one law, why do we live like there aren't any?

I'm not trying to get you down, I just want you to know That if you're gonna live for God, you've got to let go

Gotta let go of the little things, before they get you down

Gotta let go or they'll drag you to the bottom and hold
you down

It's a war we all fight and compromise is the battleground

But if you're ever gonna grow, you've got to let go

If there is only one truth, one original way

Why do we search like blind men?

Can't see the sunshine in the light of day

We've got to turn around and run the other way

'Cause if we're gonna live for God, we've got to turn away

Gotta let go of the little things, before they get you
down

Gotta let go or they'll drag you to the bottom and hold
you down

It's a war we all fight and compromise is the

But if you're ever gonna grow, you've got to let go

Turn away from the little things

Before they get you down

Turn away or they'll drag us to the bottom

And hold us down

It's a war we all fight

And compromise is the battleground

But is we're ever gonna change?

We've got to turn away

Gotta let go of the little things, before they get you
down

Gotta let go or they'll drag you to the bottom and hold

you down
It's a war we all fight and compromise is the
But if you're ever gonna grow, you've got to let go
