The sun will shine
I'll smile from time to time
And sing the song
'Cause life goes on

But it won't mean a thing
Without You and the love You bring
It won't mean a thing without You

The wounds will heal
Starting over ain't no big deal
They rebuilt Rome
And life goes on

But it won't mean a thing
Without You and the love You bring
It won't mean a thing without You

The lesson learned
We all must take our turn
And carry on
'Cause life goes on

But it won't mean a thing
Without You and the love You bring
No, it won't mean a thing
Without You and the love You bring

No, it won't mean a thing without You
Without You
Without You
