"a sign is all she wants the brand new game is up to come
give me the power

a laugh is all i need to use the finger that makes her bleed the laugh of adoration

her fear is all i care to start the disgust we must share a state of no salvtion

her lips is all i feel to make her body shake an thrill i love the darkest passion

when the vices go to hellway,i bring up my wine and go there again, go there again an the flames around my neck burn my soul in the demons game, the demons game the strangest disease comes to my head, get out and get out of here
noxious pleasures run in my hands, give me the power the game has now begun a dirty damage in our fall a road with no direction

the fright is all i read written on her dying skin the joy of malediction

the worst is all we search to build the hate, the new empire a house of desperation

the madness in arms will never tear our hearts apart our love the devils passion

get out of here
noxious pleasures run in my hands, i break the empire
