Chorus/ I was used to drinking champagne and
expensive wine,
Dom Perignon was a real good friend of mine,
My whole life was figured out, I thought I had it made,
But since you came to power, I'm back to lemonade.

We were drinking XO, twenty five dollars a shot!
Sitting at the bar, and smoking big cigars,
Girls come around, we used to buy them all a drink,
But since you came to power I really got to think.

Chorus/ I was used to drinking champagne and
expensive wine,
Dom Perignon was a real good friend of mine,
My whole life was figured out, I thought I had it made,
But since you came to power, I'm back to lemonade.

We had a really good time, I have to give God thanks,
Food was on the table and money in the bank,
Now I'm late on every payment and I can hardly eat,
Scotia got Pierra running after me. (To chorus)

We use to go to Miami, just to buy some lunch,
We use to go to the DR, for the Sunday Brunch,
Gambling up in Vegas, all week long,
Since you came to power I'm singing a different song.
