This has always been
The only way out
I'm not giving you the chance
This has always been
The only way out
I'm not giving you the chance...
Don't look to me for something
That you don't have inside
Don't look to me for something
That you never showed
Don't look to me for something
That you don't have inside

That you don't have inside
That you don't...
This has always been
The only way out
I'm not giving you the chance...
One more reason why
Nothing works out right
One more reason why
Just another dent in the damage
Just another name to add to the list
Of remember to forget
