just what i needed
some time to myself
when i am bothered by nobody else sometimes i ponder
over what might go wrong
i don't want to wander
from where i know belong catch that comet and speed off
catch that comet and speed off
leave the earth now and fly free come to asteroid g
lets go to astreoid g
so i end up even worse than before having to scrape
my broken heart off the floor we'll all still sit here by the curb and if i keep quiet
she won't be disturbed
i'm going back
to where i was once
catching that comet
be back in a month
to where i was once
catching that comet
so i can be free
maybe i've found my place on this rock i'll stay
so maybe i've found my place on this rock
i'll stay
