Never been much good on my own
So I'm trying to find somebody else
Never been good at finding much except
Loneliness all by myself

Spotting you ain't been easy
I could use one hand, maybe two
'Cause I got this spot right beside me, baby
Waiting here just for you

So you go hide, and I'll come seek
And maybe someday in the middle we just might meet
'Cause I'm counting to 100 and I promise I won't peak
As you go hide, and I come seek

How much longer will this game go on?
I guess only time will tell
I hate to hear that you're all alone
Overlooked in search of someone else

So you go hide, and I'll come seek
And maybe someday in the middle we just might meet
'Cause I'm counting to 100 and I promise I won't peak
As you go hide, and I come seek

Please show your face
Because I want you to be it, yeah
I want you to be it

You go hide, and I'll come seek
And maybe someday in the middle we just might meet
'Cause I'm counting to 100 and I promise I won't peak
As you go hide, and I come seek

I'll come seek
