Bought that ticket
Took that train
And I'm running through my problems again
They keep crawling right on under my skin
In the end
Can't look back
Can't look ahead
Gotta close my eyes and holler instead
Or I'll let you back inside of my head
In the end
I can feel it coming, deep inside my bones
In the end
All your friends are gone, and now you're on your own
In the end
It's just you and no one else, you're all alone
In the end
Hold my breath, count back from 10
And when I'm done I'll do it over again
And I'm stuck behind a permanent
In the end
Lying awake, I'm sick in bed
I can't get over all the things you said
They keep swimming in and out of my head
In the end
I can feel it coming, deep inside my bones
In the end
All your friends are gone, and now you're on your own
In the end
It's just you and no one else, you're all alone
In the end
I have heard that if you keep it to yourself
In the end
In the end
I can feel it coming, deep inside my bones
In the end
All your friends are gone, and now you're on your own
In the end
It's just you and no one else, you're all alone
In the end
In the end
