Peace child throw your habds around the memory of your unknown father
Listen to the tale of how he lost his life across the water Embrace the essence of your youth Embrace it through a friend's devotion
You will find the colors that were hidden deep beneath the ocean

Peace child offer to descendants
More than has been left for you

Exercise the freedom to affect the faces lost and wandering
The link from him to you is swelling high beneath your soul
Don't sit until the day is gone and then expect the night to come

Open the days of you and I
We thought that god was in the sky Despite directions you will try Remain
