Words by Phat Chance, Scotty Wilbanks & Jason Burkum

Music by Phat Chance & Scotty Wilbanks

How many times must we try things our way, before we acknowledge that it all comes down to You, Lord? So simple, yet so profound; we offer this song in an attitude of reverent worship. Luke 15: 11-24, I Cor. 8: 6

I tried to do it my way,
In every single task.
I tried to make things work out,
But I knew they wouldn't last.

I TRIED TO WALK ON WATER,
I TRIED IT ON MY OWN,
I TRIED TO MOVE THE MOUNTAIN,
I CAN'T, I'M ALL ALONE.

SO, IT CAME DOWN TO YOU,
TO COME AND RESCUE ME.
LORD, YOU WALKED ON THE WATER,
AND YOU PARTED THE SEA.
NOW YOU'RE MOVING THE MOUNTAINS,
AND THEY'RE UNDER MY FEET.
YOU AMAZE ME, WITH EVERYTHING YOU DO,
IT ALL COMES DOWN TO YOU.

I wasted every fortune,
Crushed by all my pride.
But when I came back broken,
Your arms were open wide.
