(David Crosby and Jeff Pevar)

[Intro. (Acoustic Guitar)]

Little Blind Fish in a wide river
Sayin' who is the gift who is the giver
Is it a matter of choice where you go
Does it give you a voice just to know

You're here
You're here, that you're here

Little Blind Fish staring at a mirror
Sayin' how far can you see are you getting any nearer
Little Blind Bird sitting in a tree
Singin' this is the end now can't you see

It's all gone, solid gone
It's all gone, solid gone

[Instrumental (Acoustic Guitar)]

Little Blind Fox sitting in a box
Sayin' this is an open space and it has no locks
And tattered Old Lion sitting in a cage
Bit off his own leg in a rage

In a rage
In a rage, in a rage

Little Blind Fish in a wide river
Sayin' who is the gift who is the giver
Is it a matter of choice where you go
Does it give you a voice just to know

You're here
You're here
