Calm like a bomb, well it all took an ugly turn when you walked in Armed to the teeth, I'll be damned if I go down without a fight Armed with mistakes, I was chanceless and went down before our second round You walked in on me, so don't be so surprised I ain't on top Bring on your cheap tricks and all of your knives, these bloodshot eyes have seen more than one fight Somebody told you they left me for dead, well call off the search-team, 'cause I am still here

Black-eyed and bruised, it's been years since I was caught red-handed in this game
All in a day, I spent all my mistakes on you my dear Razorblade sharp it only took a minute to walk over me
Brought to my knees I'll be damned if I go
down without a fight

You brought me to the end of my rope, you pulled up a chair and you left me a note Well I tangled along, but I thought you should know, somebody left me for dead
