"I Feel The Son"

I lift your name, on high
You gave me life, when you died
And it was you, who forgave my sins
And it was you, who made me, who made me see again

I feel the son, I feel the rain
And I feel his wind, building my faith

I no longer, feel ashamed
And when I praise, praise your name
Do you remember that night I prayed
I know you do Lord, you made me see again
I feel the son, I feel the rain
And I feel his wind, building my faith
I feel the son, I feel the rain
And I feel his wind, building my faith
I'm bound by faith
I've found my faith
I'm bound by faith
I've found my faith
