My tears fall to earth like raindrops, exposing my weakness

Lord it seems I'm falling back again

Sometimes I climb so far, only to backslide
It seems I'm falling back, but I will not abandon ship

I'm so thirsty, for you Lord
I'm so thirsty, for you Lord

I know that I have failed you, too many times now
Would you ever fail to show me grace
My friends think that I'm a fool, for even believing
Lord, it seems I'm sliding back,
But I will not abandon ship

Thirsty for you Lord

I'm so thirsty, for you Lord
Thirsty, for you Lord
I'm so thirsty, for you Lord
