Forgive me Lord; I'm a prideful man,
Living in flesh the best I can
Save me, oh won't you save me

Lord the world is a bitter place,
And I just want to feel your grace,
Save me, oh won't you save me

Save me now oh Lord my God,
For I'm crying from the wilderness, save me
Hold me close Lord to your heart;
Let my tears run down your forgiving arms,
Save me, oh won't you save me oh Lord,
My God, save me

Lord you give me all these gifts,
Yet my church still ties my hands,
Save me, oh won't you save me

But who am I to criticize,
I've been a sinner my entire life
Save me, oh won't you save me

Save me now oh Lord my God,
For I'm crying from the wilderness, save me
Hold me close Lord to your heart;
Let my tears run down your forgiving arms,
Save me, oh won't you save me oh Lord,
My God, save me

Hold me close Lord to your heart;
Let my tears run down your forgiving arms,
Save me, oh won't you save me oh Lord,
My God, save me
For I'm crying from the wilderness, save me
Save me now oh Lord my God
For I'm crying from the wilderness, save me
