In the pouring rain, they made their way
To a town called Bethlehem,
He knocked on the doors, and they turned him away,
So they laid him in a manger
But from that stormy night
The Lord gave us Jesus Christ

I'm going to praise his name till the stars
Fall from the sky
You are my Lord
On my knees with my hands lifted up high
You are my Lord; you are the Lord my God

Blood run down his face,
As they lay a crown of thorns, on his head
Can you feel the pain, as they pounded nails in his flesh
But on that glorious day, the Lord washed my sins away

I'm going to praise his name till the stars
Fall from the sky
You are my Lord
On my knees with my hands lifted up high
I'm going to praise his name till the stars
Fall from the sky
You are my Lord
On my knees with my hands lifted up high
You are the Lord, oh you are my Lord
You are the Lord, you are the Lord my God
