"Lonely by Your Side"

I'm counting the lives
Feeling the strain
To get right with you
Can't be this hard to do

No saving this day
My chance slips away
These words overdue
Won't stop me from losing you

And it's lonely, lonely, lonely by your side
And I've nowhere, nowhere left to hide
And it's lonely, lonely, lonely by your side

The time on our side
Can't open my eyes
It hurts me to see
You long for some purity
Through all of the years
A slave to the tears
Another reason to cry
The last time for you and I
