Pain
Sorrow
Regret
Hate

Yesterday

Hope
Promise
Chance
Uncertainty

Tomorrow

But I live in here and now
In a time of struggle and strife
Hoping for more than I have
Looking towards a better life

That's all anyone can do
Work at being better
Look for something new
Trying to improve

As the now fades into yesterday
And tomorrow becomes today
We must be ready to continue on Down our little bumpy roads

But yesterday is gone
And tomorrow is not yet here
All there is and ever was
Is now.
