The light has changed
I wonder
The times we had
Why I wonder
I saw you're eye's
They went right through me
I'm the man of glass

I can't live I just have to die
When I'm gone you'll remember why
I used to smile, without my eyes
When I'm cold will you keep me warm
Guide my steps through the mystic storm...
Please wipe the snow away from my stone

You killed my love
Now I'm bitter
It had to end
You see... I'm dying
I call you're name
You're not responding
I'm the man of glass

I can't live I just have to die
When I'm gone you'll remember why
I used to smile, without my eyes
When I'm cold will you keep me warm
Guide my steps through the mystic storm...
Please wipe the snow away from my stone

It hurt's to know
You were so cold
I should grow old
We, together
Look! the first snow
It melt's on my blood
I am the man of glass
