You're beautiful but you're crazy
We do the dance you lead
I'm kind of smart but I'm lonely
So don't tempt me

You sleep on magic carpets
And read your gypsy tea
I hear the song of a siren
Drowning out my reality
So come onâ€¦don't tempt me

Keep your prose and your oceans of burgundy
Keep your distance, but no too far
My mind is clear but the future is hazy
It's safe just to stay where we are

Beautiful and crazy
That seems how it always goes for me
Standing naked before you
Just like Adam and Eve
So don't tempt me
