"So Much For Love"

Visit "So Much For Love" on MotoLyrics.com

Some days there's no pleasing any woman
I bleed and still it ain't enough
I suffer i give up-
So much for love

Some days i'm rock solid till it hits me
And leaves me totally confused
Why do i always lose-
So much for love

As far as I know love comes in extremes
You don't care or care too much
There ain't no in between

Someday I may change but now I'm happy
To just go drinking with the boys
I've conquered and destroyed-
So much for love

Some days there's no pleasing any woman
And I fall face down in the dirt
Why do I always hurt-
So much for love

That's enough for me, I'm not fallingâ€¦
