he's got a dog he plays guitar he wears a nose ring he breezes in through every door that i see closing he's everything a boy should be & me i'm nothing
i wanna be like tim

he's got a dad, a classic vette a model girlfriend he's got no worries just a trust fund waiting for him tonight i sit inside these four walls dreaming of them
i'll never be like tim

everything could change if he'd trade lives with me i could be like every kid on mtv i need a girl, i need a dog i need some ice cream i need a drug, i need a reason i'll take a wet dream somebody please come out and check on how i'm feeling if your not out with tim

i wanna be like tim
