Look at you, look at me,
Together once again.
This is a day to celebrate reunion of friends.
Sha la la la la la la la la.

Time to dance, time to sing,
Time to join our hands.
This is a day to celebrate reunion of friends.

We can recapture the years that slipped away,
We can relive all the memories still,
So don't you be sad for our prayers
Have been answered today.
It's time to celebrate.

See you laugh, see you smile,
Blessed with innocence.
This is the day to celebrate reunion of friends.

This is the day to celebrate reunion of friends.

We can recapture the years that slipped away,
We can relive all the memories still,
So don't you be sad for our prayers
Have been answered today.
It's time to celebrate.

We can recapture the years that slipped away,
We can relive all the memories still,
We can rebuild all His mercy, peace, and grace.
And there is no dream that He can't fulfill
So let's celebrate today.
