It's raining again
But let's just pretend it's just stars falling off the roof
It's just you and I now...
So, let your head down
I'll make you bulletproof
And I'll hide you from this dawn world
And the fist? that's spin around us go
You and I
Just should fall into this
Without second guessing
All of us stuck
So let's run away love
Today
'Cauz there's nothing left for us to embrace
Except each other now
And I faith that you and I won't live for last
That you and I were made for this embrace
So, embrace
Just, go ahead and let go
There's no promises for tomorrow
You know, that's all, that's alright
And when you feel embarrassed like
And you start to feeling sure?
When, there just all have to be your pride

And I'll hide you from this dawn world,
And the fist? that's spin around us go
You and I should just fall into this
Without second guessing
All of us stuck
So, let's run away love
Today
'Cauz there's nothing left for us to embrace
Except each other now
And I faith that you and I were made for this
That you and I were made for this embrace
Embrace
Embrace

And when our fears to collide
When we look our future's house when say?

And when our fears to collide
When we look our future's house when say?
You and me just say
You and me just say

So; let's run away love
Today
So; let's run away love
Today
Except each other now
And I faith that you and I won't live for last
That you and I were made for this embrace
So, embrace
Yes, embrace
Embrace...
