I was lost and forgotten
Alone and cold
I was down to my last promise
To myself and my soul
I had walked the streets of darkness
Laid at the altar of sin
Till a light shined down upon this
Shattered memory of a man

I've seen hell from the bottom of a bottle
I've watched faith take its final stand
I had packed and moved to rock bottom
Till I reached out and held god's hand

I've seen time rewind before me
As my life faded away
I was blind and ignored the
Only friend that could ever save me

I've seen hell from the bottom of a bottle
I've watched faith take its final stand
I had packed and moved to rock bottom
Till I reached out and held god's hand

I've seen hell from the bottom of a bottle
I've watched faith take its final stand
I had packed and moved to rock bottom
Till I reached out and held god's hand

Till I reached out and held god's hand
